A Word to Republicans.

The hope of the party lies in the expansion of a staiwart Republican press. The Republican who reads or otherwise helps to support a Democratic paper to the exclusion of one of his own party newspapers is untrue to the Republican cause.

Unanimously subscribed to by the National Republican League.

J. S. CLARKSON, President. A. B. HUMPHREY, Secretary.

If the Tariff "reformers" themselves should not know the worth of the Tariff "reform" Congress, who should?

THERE is no higher Democratic authority than The Courier-Journal, and in its issue of June 14th it says; "The history of an organization is the best index to its future course." This is eminently correct doctrine and it is for that very reason that the Republican National Committee is circulating documents which recite the history of the $5 252525 Democratic party with great fullness and accuracy. When, for instance, it is shown that the Democratic party has never adopted a tariff for revenue only and maintained it for ten years without sions will be cheerfully supplied upon lowering wages one-half and depriving tens of thousands of their means of livelihood, every thinking man ought to be able to do something in the way of judging the future of the party by the

THE able editor of The Kentucky Journal prepared a paper and read it before the Commercial Club of Newport. It shows that Newport has been nearly rnined within the past ten years by the Republican Tariff laws. Here are the comparative figures:

Capital invested 81,765,915 86,921,450
Hands employed 1,683 5,019
Wages paid 8697,986 81,736,900
Material used 2,816,850 4,658,416
Value products 4,842,884 7,088,819

THE LEDGER is surprised to see such utterly absurd statements over the signature of Brother BLAKELY; for he persistently asserts in his editorial columns that the whole country is being ruined by the Tariff, and no well regu- especially attractive.

lated Democratic editor would practice deception. There isn't the semblance of truth in the figures of 1890. Newport is a dead city; the moss is growing on THE PUBLIC LEDGER CO. her factories and the grass is knee-deep in front of The Journal office; and it is all on account of the defeat of CLEVE-LAND and Free-trade in 1888, the election of Harrison and the passage of the McKinley bill.

DEMOCRATIC newspaper editors, whose stock of misinformation is always large, but unusually so when it comes to matters appertaining to the Grand Army of the Republic, have taken every opportunity to denounce Congress sa oo and the administration for appropriating $100,000 of "the peoples' money," as they put it, for the entertainment of the old soldiers during the approaching National Encampment in Washington City. For the information of comrades who may not understand any better able and made known on application at than our Democratic friends how such an amount could be justly donated by Congress, a few explanations may serve a good end.

> It is customary in all cities where Encampments are to be held to raise certain amounts through efforts of a "Citizens' Committee" toward the general expenses to be incurred, and ask that the remainder be donated by the "City Fathers," comprising the Mayor and Board of Alderman. The City of Washington has no Mayor, Board of Aldermen nor Common Council, but is governed by Congress solely, through three Commissioners who are appointed by the President.

The taxes of the city are paid directly into the Treasury of the United States, and not a dollar of the so-called "city money" can be used for any purpose unless Congress appropriates it. When it is borne in mind that Congress owns more than one-half the property of the District, and that it is bound by a THE Free-trader keeps on shouting law, passed in 1878, to meet all expenses already raised a handsom; sum toward meeting the expenses of the Encamp. #### LAND-SLIDE.

Danger Threatened by the Sixth-Street Hill, Cincinnati.

Thousands of Dollars Damage Done by Its Moving Downward.

Houses Wrecked or Wrenched From Their Foundations-Many Families Driven in Terror From Their Homes-There is No Means of Preventing It.

CINCINNATI, June 29 .- The fears of those who had anticipated a landslide of the East Sixth-street hill, near Gilbert avenue, were Tuesday realized. The little fissures in the hillside, which Monday caused some to be alarmed and others to laugh at any attempt to discuss the situation as critical, proved to be but the forerunners of a mighty movement of the earth, as unexpected in its extent as destructive in its char-

Without warning the small cracks in the earth, which after every rain are seen to more or less extend on the hillsides, opened wide, and, with tremendous force, a mass of earth weighing thousands of tons, moved down upon the situated on East Sixth street. Tuesday night two houses had been wrecked and fourteen been partially crushed or moved from their foundations and their walls, ceilings and frame work cracked and wrenched out of place. The mass of earth was still moving, and there was not even a plausible suggestion offered to stay its course of destruction. The money loss has already run into the thousands, and ere these lines are read may be augmented to a very large

The area of the slide is triangularshaped, about 400 feet in length and 500 wide. It is estimated that the movement of the earth extends about thirty feet down. It commences at the intersection of Russell street (the new thoroughtare) with Court street, just opposite the Ida street bridge. From this point the slide extends east and west in triangular shape, and is moving in a southeasterly direction down upon the houses on East Sixth street.

About 1 o'clock Tuesday morning the residents of East Sixth street, from No. 801 to 311, began to hear ominous, cracking sounds. The ceilings of several houses began to bulge and start. At 2 o'clock Mrs. Kennedy, who resided at 307, began tearing up her carpets. The house could be felt to shiver, and the occupants were scared nearly out of their senses

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Tracey, who reside at 305, were also awakened by the warning creakings. It seemed as if the house was moving from under them. They, too, began hastily to gather up their belongings and move into the

At daylight Tuesday morning the scene at the slide was indescribable. The street was filled with hustling men and women hastily loading their things into wagons and flying for a place of

A TRUST DECISION.

NEW YORK, June 29.-Judge Lacombe, in the U. S. circuit court of the southern district of New York Tuesday handed down the decision discharging Herbert L. Terrell, who was arrested in this district on an indictment found in Massachusetts against him as a member of the whisky trust. Judge Lacombe concured in the opinion of Judge Ricke, of Ohio, on application for a removal in the cases of Cooney and French. Judge Lacombe also finds that, conceding a contract had been made between dealers and purchasers, it was not in restraint of trade.

Bain Not a Candidate for Vice-President. CINCINNATI, June 29.—Col. George W. Bain, of Lexington, Ky., who has been mentioned in connection with the nomination for the vice-presidency, and who was at one time believed to be the choice of the convention, says he will not permit the use of his name in the prohibition convention, and that he will not accept the nomination.

A COLORED THIEF

Disposes of Valuable Diamonds for Small

CLARRSVILLE, Tenn., June 29 .- The ignorance of the colored man as to the value of gems was shown by the man-ner in which George Whitfield, a colored man, disposed of three rings stoien from Mrs. Dora Stewart, of this city. The aggregate value of the stones is $500, but Whitfield traded them for seventy-five cents, selling a cluster of ten small diamonds worth $250 for tencents, a large solitaire diamond valued at $150 for twenty-five cents, and for a small solitaire worth $100 he received forty cents. They were purchased by blacks, equally as ignorant as himself, who thought the rings contained pretty glass settings. They were all recovered. In default of bail Whitfield was placed in jail to await trial. He will get a good term in the penitentiary.

The Prohibition Platform.

CINCINNATI, June 29.—The prohibition platform promises to be a model, and will be written by some of the shrewdest men in the party. On the silver question it will probably advocate the purchase and coinage by the government of all silver produced in the United States. While this will inflate the currency, it will, at the same time, prevent the big silver owners from reaping the benefit and will be in the interest of the people at large. It will say that all speculation in the issuing of money should be prevented, and that the government should have the benefit of all issuances. On tariff it will oppose protection as well as free trade. It will advocate that the tariff should be practically prohibitory on all countries that in turn levy a tariff upon American products. It is proposed to raise the residue of revenue necessary to carry on the government by a graduated income tax. So far as a change of name is concerned, if any is recommended it will be "Home Party," but as the benefits to be derived from a change of name are small it is likely that the present one will stand.

Tornado at New Lisbon, O.

SALEM, O., June 29 .- New Lisbon, the county seat of Columbiana county, ten miles south of this place, was struck by a tornado. A large number of buildings were completely wrecked. No deaths have been reported. The county jail was unroofed and the side wall blown The courthouse was badly damaged. The streets are litterally covered with debris from buildings and uprooted trees. The damage to property is not yet estimated. Telegraph and telephone communication is destroyed.

Unknown Corpse Found in the River.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., June 29 .- Anunknown man with a ragged hole in his right temple was found Tuesday morning in a boat floating down the Ohio river. The boat was towed to shore and the clothing searched by the coroner. Nothing that would disclose his name or residence was found, except an envelope on which was written the word "Lawrenceburg." In the bottom of the boat was a cheap revolver and small silver watch.

Archbishops to Meet-

New York, June 29 .- A circular calling a meeting of Catholic archbishops has been issued. New York has been selected as the place for the gathering and next October as the time. In view of the differences existing on the school question the meeting is looked upon as the most momentous conference of Catholic dignitaries ever held in America. The thirteen archbishops of the United States will be present.

Jas. A. Bailey Insanc.

New York, June 29.-Jas. A. Bailey, the well-known circus manager, who since the death of P. T. Barnum, has managed the "greatest show on earth," is said to have become insane from overwork. The loss of his reason is not be lieved to be permaneat, and his friends all hope that after a rest he will be all right, and again in the "ring." The manager is said to be at present confined in an asylum at Chicago.

Who Are the Helrs? JACKSONVILLE, Ill., June 29 .- F. T.
